

I listen to K-LOVE radio via translator at 89.3FM in Steamboat Springs, CO. I also listen to it via various other translators througout the state when driving for my business. This is the only Christian radio station serving northwest Colorado. The other programming in this area is not very family friendly, and often offensive. Please do not replace our translator with a LPFM signal. Thank you.